THE LATEST FROM THE READING ROOM

Our doors have been open for only eight short months and already we are gathering a regular following of clients. In addition, the majority of new faces are coming from referrals. Thank you. This has prompted us to bring forward the launch of our rewards programme: The Kindred Spirits Inner Circle.

The Kindred Spirits Inner Circle acknowledges the trust our regular clients have placed in the Reading Room; whether you have come for a tarot or intuitive reading, healing session, personal growth, tarot class or workshop. The benefits include discounts on books and decks; complimentary reading; regular e-newsletter updates and special members only offers. When you join the Kindred Spirit Inner Circle you will receive credit for your past readings. Please take the time to apply at our website (www.thereadingroom.biz), drop in and see us or call us at The Reading Room on 3003 0878, for full details.

In the next few months, there is plenty for you to enjoy at The Reading Room.

We are very excited to welcome Jen Gallagher, professional Aromatherapist. At Jen's interactive 'playshop' you will discover the power of aromatherapy and will blend your own essential oils to make a perfume. The details are overleaf.

In response to a huge interest in learning the tarot, the first of our Introduction to Tarot classes is scheduled for the 20th of March. This full day program is the perfect way to start your journey to becoming a tarot reader or refreshing your basic knowledge. Details overleaf.

Megan Williams—Intuitive
Owner of The Reading Room

Talking Tarot in Town gets underway with our first meeting scheduled for April 10th. The Reading Room's monthly tarot study group will then meet on the first Saturday every month from 9.30 to 11.30 am. Again, details overleaf.

The Reading Room was launched at last year's Mind Body Spirit Festival and we are already making plans for this year's event. Mark the 25 – 27th June in your diary to come and see us at the RNA Showgrounds. This year you can enjoy an intuitive consultation with one of our readers or preview our motivational and metaphysical books and tarot decks (a few new ones have arrived).

Finally, do you know any good readers? Due to the growth we are experiencing, we are looking for readers to join us to offer a range of intuitive services and what better place to start looking than our own network. If you know a reader (tarot, intuitive, psychic, healer etc.) who has excellent intuitive skills; who is wise and has good process, then please give them our contact details. We would love to meet them.

We look forward to seeing you in the Reading Room.

Love and light
