

Late Winter Newsletter

Hello dear E Newsletter and Kindred Spirits Members,

I hope this newsletter finds you well and enjoying our 'proper' winter this year! We've got a bit of news to tell you, so we've sent out an extra newsletter to fill you in.

Palmist Sarah Yip joins our team.

We are delighted to welcome Sarah Yip to our team. Sarah is an experienced Palmist, Numerologist and Tarot reader; and compliments her intuitive work with her qualifications in holistic counselling. Sarah will be holding an introduction to Palmistry course on the 10th and 17th September. Again, visit our website for more details. Sarah's 'maiden voyage' with the Reading Room will be at the Ekka this year, so you will also be able to catch her there for a reading. Which brings me to our next big news....

We're off to the Ekka!

The Reading Room is this year's Ekka's 'mind body spirit' offering with our team of elite psychics showcasing their skills in channelling, tarot, palmistry and mediumship for Ekka visitors. You will find our stand at the John Reid Wool Pavilion, right near the fashion parade stage. Bookings can be made in advance by emailing: bookings@thereadingroom. We will also be open during the Ekka in the city, so business as usual except for Sat 13th, Wed 17th and Thur 18th.

Learn to Channel – new dates.

We have had a huge response to Teena Angelia's "Learn to Channel" course, so we have decided to open up a new intake starting 3rd September. Again, places are limited to 11, so if the course seems like your cup of tea, call us to reserve your place.

Even though I've been a practitioner for many years, I have found that Teena's course has actually got me practicing spirituality and doing things which I have intellectualising over for years. It has taken my channelling skills to another level. Here is what some of our June graduates and current participants have to say:

"I just wanted to express my thanks for Monday night's workshop. I thoroughly enjoyed myself and it's nice to finally meet like minded individuals and know that you are not in fact going crazy:). I am really looking forward to completing all three units.

Carita.

I want to thank you and Teena so very much for sharing your knowledge and insight with me. The course gave me skills that I never thought that I'd acquire (and actually be able to use) and it came at a time when I needed it most. I cannot convey enough gratitude for what you and Teena have done in terms of opening my eyes, mind and heart to using my energy responsibly and stepping into my power. Elizabeth.

*"This course has opened my eyes completely to aspects of myself I never knew existed".
Karen.*

"I find the practices I've been taught help me in so many ways – relaxation, grounding and focus in particular." Kia.

We are more than happy to talk to you about whether this course can help you meet your personal objectives in your life path. Give us a call in the Reading Room. Ph: 3003 0878. The best time to call is between 8.30am and 9.30 am or if we are in a reading, leave your name and number and we will return your call.

In closing:

A note of gratitude to you for your interest in the Reading Room and our events. We are thankful for the support you have shown in staying in touch. We also love to see our regular clients in the Reading Room and thank you all for your referrals and repeat business. It is the foundation of our little business and keeps us off the streets!

Love and light,
Megan
