

We are different from other readers.

We help people change their lives. Not only do we bring through information from spirit; we use various therapeutic techniques to help you to take the information in and put it into action. We take responsibility for offering the information in a way you can work with and in a way that motivates and helps you to change and grow.

Our readings are very practical. By the end of the reading you will know specifically how to move forward in your life based on the information channelled from your guides.

Energy Healings

When you experience pain in your life your body stores your response in the form of blocks in your energy field (your aura). It is also said we store pain from past lives and bring it with us into this lifetime for healing. Energy healing work accesses the energy blocks caused from this pain, clearing it from your aura and enabling you access your soul's energy and creativity.

Energy healing enables you to prosper physically, mentally, spiritually and emotionally. You are better able to access your natural creativity to be in resourceful states and live your destiny. Most noticeably, energy healing helps you to clear physical pain that is a result of the emotional and mental aspects of your life experience. You feel better in your body and self.

As you raise awareness of your mental and emotional aspects of your life with coaching work or readings, energy healing can assist to lay a good foundation at the physical level by clearing the aura and removing blocks, as described above.
